After we have spent some time doing our crafts and chatting, we will gather together for our closing prayers, just as we would if we were meeting in the Discovery Centre at the Cathedral!

I danced in the morning when the world was begun,
and I danced in the moon and the stars and the sun,
and I came down from heaven and I danced on the earth,
at Bethlehem I had my birth.

Dance, then, wherever you may be,
I am the Lord of the Dance, said he,
And I'll lead you all, wherever you may be,
And I'll lead you all in the Dance, said he.

I danced for the scribe and the pharisee
but they would not dance and they wouldn't follow me.
I danced for the fishermen for James and John they came with me and the dance went on.

I danced on the Sabbath and I cured the lame;
the holy people said it was a shame.
They whipped and they stripped and they hung me on high and they left me there on a cross to die.

I danced on a Friday when the sky turned black
it's hard to dance with the devil on your back.
They buried my body and they thought I'd gone,
but I am the dance and I still go on.

They cut me down and I leapt up high;
I am the life that will never never die;
I'll live in you if you live in me
I am the Lord of the dance, said he.

All           The Lord be with you
and also with you.

All           Lift up your hearts.
We lift them to the Lord.

All           Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to give thanks and praise.

Question    Why is it right to give thanks and praise?
Answer       Listen, and we will hear.

Lord of all life,
you created the universe,
where all living things reflect your glory.
You give us this great and beautiful earth,
to discover and to cherish.

You give us happy times
and things to celebrate.
In these we taste your kingdom,
a feast for all your children.

Question Why do we share bread and wine?
Answer Listen, and we will hear.

On the night before he died,
when darkness had fallen,
Jesus took bread.
He gave thanks, broke it
and shared it with his disciples, saying:
'This is my body, given for you.
Do this to remember me.'

After they had eaten, he took the cup of wine, gave thanks, and shared it with his disciples, saying: 'This is my blood, poured out for you and for many, for the forgiveness of sins.'

Question How do we pray?
Answer We pray as Jesus has taught us

All            Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come;
thy will be done;
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation;
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
the power and the glory,
for ever and ever.
Amen.

All            The peace of the Lord be always with you.
And also with you.

This week, why not revisit the story and think about it again by visiting: <https://stedscathedral.org/worship/childrens-resource/>

Please respect the personal and intimate nature of prayer and do not take screenshots or record video while participating in group worship online. While we ask people not to take photographs or videos we must advise you that, when taking part in services online, the Cathedral has no control over the possible capturing of your image by other participants.

Please do not leave young people and children unattended and ensure that a supervising adult is present.

If you are able, please consider making your offertory donation through our website. While the Cathedral is closed our income is very limited and any support you can give as a congregation as we maintain services and resources for the community is greatly appreciated.
