Holy Communion

on holy days

Common Worship Order One
Welcome to St Edmundsbury Cathedral
for this celebration of Holy Communion

The service is taken from The Order for the Celebration of the Holy Communion please bow your head as a signal to the priest.

Prayer after Communion

President   Let us pray.

Silence is kept

The Post Communion Prayer is led by the President after which all may say

Lord of heaven,
in this eucharist you have brought us near to an innumerable company of angels and to the spirits of the saints made perfect:
as in this food of our earthly pilgrimage
we have shared their fellowship,
so may we come to share their joy in heaven;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

The Dismissal

President   God give you grace to follow his saints
in faith and hope and love;
and the blessing of God almighty,
the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit,
be among you and remain with you always.

All           Amen.

President   Following God’s saints in the ways of holiness and truth, go in the peace of Christ.

All           Thanks be to God.

also called The Eucharist and The Lord’s Supper from Common Worship: Services and Prayers for the Church of England.

No Christian is solitary. Through baptism we become members one of another in Christ, members of a company of saints whose mutual belonging transcends death. Festivals (“red letter days”) and Lesser Festivals (“black letter days”) celebrate men and women in whose lives the Church has seen the grace of God powerfully at work. These holy days provide an opportunity to give thanks for that grace, and for the wonderful ends to which it shapes a human life; they provide a time to be encouraged by the example of the saints and other holy men and women and to recall that sanctity may grow in the ordinary circumstances, as well as the ordinary crises, of human living. Redemption is a work of God’s grace; it is God who redeems us in Christ and there is nothing to be done beyond what Christ has done. But we still wait for the final consummation of God’s new creation in Christ; those who are Christ’s, whether or not they have passed through death, are joined in prayer that God’s kingdom will be revealed finally and in all its fullness.

The service has four main sections:

The Gathering, when we come together in worship. This concludes with the Collect which ‘collects’ or gathers together the prayers of the congregation.

The Liturgy of the Word, when we listen to readings from the Bible and offer our prayers of intercession.

The Liturgy of the Sacrament, when we follow the example and command of Jesus at the Last Supper. The President takes the bread and the wine to be consecrated, offers thanks in the words of the Eucharistic (thanksgiving) Prayer, breaks the bread to be shared, and then distributes these gifts to the congregation.

The Dismissal, in which the President blesses the congregation and we are sent out to love and serve the Lord.

The Gathering

President   In the name of the Father,
and of the Son,
and of the Holy Spirit.
The President describes the man or woman or event which marks this holy day.

The Greeting
President We stand before the throne of God with countless crowds from every nation and race, tribe and language.
All Blessing and glory and wisdom, thanksgiving and honour, power and might be to our God for ever and ever. Amen.

Prayer of Preparation
All Almighty God, to whom all hearts are open, all desires known, and from whom no secrets are hidden: cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Prayers of Penitence
President Since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us also lay aside every weight and the sin that clings so closely, looking to Jesus in penitence and faith.

Silence is kept
All Lord God, we have sinned against you; we have done evil in your sight. We are sorry and repent. Have mercy upon us according to your love.

Breaking of the Bread
President We break this bread, to share in the body of Christ.
All Though we are many, we are one body, because we all share in one bread.

Agnus Dei
All Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world, have mercy on us.
All Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world, have mercy on us.
All Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world, grant us peace.

Giving of Communion
President I heard the voice of a great multitude crying, ‘Alleluia.’ The Lord our God has entered into his kingdom.
All Blessed are those who are called to the supper of the Lamb.

Members of the congregation who are confirmed members of the Church of England, or who are of good standing within their own churches, are invited to receive communion.

If you wish to receive a blessing only,
help us to work together for that day when your kingdom comes and justice and mercy will be seen in all the earth.

Look with favour on your people, gather us in your loving arms
and bring us with [N and] all the saints to feast at your table in heaven.

Through Christ, and with Christ, and in Christ,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
all honour and glory are yours, O loving Father,
for ever and ever.

All Amen.

Wash away our wrongdoing
and cleanse us from our sin.
Renew a right spirit within us
and restore us to the joy of your salvation,
through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

President May God our Father
forgive you your sins,
and bring you to the fellowship of his table
with his saints for ever.
All Amen.

All Glory to God in the highest,
and peace to his people on earth.

The Nicene Creed or An Affirmation of Faith may be used on suitable occasions

All

We believe in one God,

Hosanna in the highest.

President

We praise and bless you, loving Father,
through Jesus Christ, our Lord;
and as we obey his command,
send your Holy Spirit,
that broken bread and wine outpoured
may be for us the body and blood of your dear Son.

On the night before he died
he had supper with his friends and, taking bread, he praised you.
He broke the bread, gave it to them and said:
Take, eat; this is my body which is given for you;
do this in remembrance of me.

When supper was ended he took the cup of wine.
Again he praised you, gave it to them and said:
Drink this, all of you;
this is my blood of the new covenant, which is shed for you and for many
for the forgiveness of sins.
Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me.

So, Father, we remember all that Jesus did,
in him we plead with confidence his sacrifice made once for all upon the cross.

Bringing before you the bread of life and cup of salvation, we proclaim his death and resurrection
until he comes in glory.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus:
Dying you destroyed our death,
rising you restored our life:
Lord Jesus, come in glory.

Lord of all life,
soon be gathered together
from the corners of the earth into your kingdom.

All     Amen.

Eucharistic Prayer E

President   The Lord be with you.
All         And also with you.

President   Lift up your hearts.
All         We lift them to the Lord.

President   Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
All         It is right to give thanks and praise.

President   It is indeed right, our duty and our joy,
always and everywhere to give you thanks,
holy Father, almighty and eternal God,
through Jesus Christ our Lord.
And now we give you thanks, most gracious God,
surrounded by a great cloud of witnesses
and glorified in the assembly of your saints.
The glorious company of apostles praise you.
The noble fellowship of prophets praise you.
The white-robed army of martyrs praise you.
We, your holy Church, acclaim you.
In communion with angels and archangels,
and with all who served you on earth and worship you now in heaven,
we raise our voice to proclaim your glory,
for ever praising you and saying:

All      Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.
We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God, begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven, was incarnate from the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.
We believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son
is worshipped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come.
Amen.
