

map

Discovery Detectives

9. High on a wall, this story of St Edmund is woven. What is this type of art called?

10. Follow the stairs up to find a king kneeling at a shrine. Whose shrine is this?

If you enjoyed solving the clues on this trail, look out for others in the Discovery Detectives series.

For more information about the work of the Learning Hub, contact learninghub@stedscathedral.org

Welcome to St Edmundsbury Cathedral

In the Cathedral there are lots of different art works. You will find paintings, sculptures, tapestry and wood carvings; each created by talented artists inspired by the building or the stories about it. Along this trail, solve the clues, find the art and when you do, have good look at it and think about what you see. Start at the door of the Cathedral and use the map on the back page to help find your way around!

**?
Remember you may have to ask questions.

1. At the West End, a special picture made with prayer watches over the candles. Find out what this picture is called.

2. A model made of tiny pieces still being made!

3. In the South Aisle, look up. What is carved on the joins of the beams? Can you draw what you see?

4. I am supported by an easel. When you find me, look in the Cathedral and see where my picture was taken?

5. Blue is the colour for this chapel. Find a young boy being cuddled by his mother.

What is this made of?

Who is the boy and who is his mother?

6. This golden bird has space to hold a large book. What bird is this?

And what do you think the book is called?

7. On a plain wall, find a figure with outstretched arms. What shape does that look like?

Who is the figure?

What is it made of?

8. Find the largest chair in the Cathedral. What animal has a head in its paws?

